

DON-TIGER BATTLE IS TOSS-UP

WHICH ONE WILL GRIN AND BEAR IT TOMORROW?

Headman BILL COOK, left, of the Dons, and JESS MORTENSON, Riverside mentor, are all smiles before their grid titanic at the Municipal bowl tonight. The game which is expected to attract a record crowd, plays an important role in the future of the Eastern conference championship race as both the Cookmen and Bengals are undefeated in league competition this season.

Isamu Masuda to Study In Japan

Isamu Masuda, '39, today found it pays to say "thank you." As a result he is sailing Wednesday, Nov. 1, for Japan with three other Japanese-Americans to study in Japan for two years with immediate prospects for a three-year position shortly after.

After winning a $100 scholarship from the Central Japanese Association of Southern California last year, Masuda wrote them a letter of appreciation. From them he learned of a competitive examination in Japanese and English with the four winners—two men and two women—being awarded scholarships to Japan.

ALL COSTS PAID

The former jaysee student told reporters today that all traveling and living expenses will be paid for and that all the American Japanese representatives abroad will have to do is study.

He will reside in Tokyo where he will attend classes. A special tutor will direct the quartet in speech habits and traditions of the Nipponese.

Air Wave Quartet Must Know Who's Who On Don Gridiron

Watching every move of the assorted jumble of Santa Ana Dons and Riverside Bengals when they tangle tonight at the Municipal bowl will be four men who not only have to know their football, but have to tell about it over the air waves of station KVOE.

The quartet who brings a play-by-play picture into homes of absentee gridiron fans in the range of KVOE's voice is made up of "Smilin' Bill" Hynds, special events man for the local station; Dale Deckert, city business man and flyer; Harry Ashen, Don collegian; and a representative unknown until tonight, of Riverside's jaysee microphone corps.

BROADCASTS NEW

A new feature here this year, the Don home game broadcasts are sponsored by station KVOE and the Santa Ana Junior Chamber of Commerce, and the inner workings are something like this:

Ashen's part is to work the sidelines, following the ball on the field and relaying by telephone to Broadcasters Hynds and Deckert in the stands, the pigskin's position and any action that would go unnoticed from their position.

Spotter Deckert sits beside the microphone man indicating Santa Ana players involved in each scrimmage on a chart before the microphone. He names the ball carrier, blockers, and tacklers for the Dons while Radioman Hynds relays the information on the air.

Schroeder Proud As Baby Sets Record

Little Fredene Joanne Schroeder, 5-day-old daughter of Science Instructor Frederick H. Schroeder, today held the faculty record for birth weights.

Born at 5:40 p.m. Sunday at the Santa Ana Valley hospital, she had little time to prepare for the "weighing in" ordeal that is required of all new arrivals. But she did right well by herself as the indicator shot up to 7 pounds 10 3/4 ounces—a new faculty high.

RETURNS HOME WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Schroeder, the former Bethene Hedrick, is reported resting easily and will return to her home in Orange next Wednesday.

Cigars and candy made the faculty rounds again this week as a result of the new arrival. "This is great," they all agreed, "and we only hope it will keep up awhile longer."

COMBINE NAMES

Fredene received her name from both her father and mother, being a combination of Frederick and Bethene.

Cookmen Near Top Strength For Attempt To Remain At Head Of League Standings

BULLETIN

Failing to respond to treatment as expected, three Don gridmen who were thought to be safely off the injured list were reported by Coach Bill Cook late this morning as definitely out of tonight's Riverside contest. They are Vic Linker, end; Hal Lilley, quarter; George Henry, quarter, and possibly Bob Ward, half, it was stated.

By DON MOZLEY

Healing wounds of recently-battered Don gridders today assures Coach Bill Cook's warriors of an "even break" tonight when they clash with Riverside's Bengals in the Santa Ana Municipal bowl. Both teams, undefeated in league competition, are expected to play "everyone but the water-boy" in a desperate attempt to remain a leading contender for the Eastern conference championship.

Court Session Set Tuesday

Retribution hovered over wayward freshmen today as Manager Bob Heath announced completion of plans for the annual session of Kangaroo court. Set for Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, the ceremony will be held in the Willard Junior High School auditorium, he said.

Tom Engelman, Associated Student president, declared that all freshmen are required to attend the meeting, wearing their beanies. "During the session of the court, freshmen who have broken school regulations or have in any way offended against class precedent will be tried by members of the sophomore class and penalties will be made according to the nature of the offense," Engelman stated.

Rapidly recovering from last week's encounter with San Bernardino where they drifted by the Indians 33-0, the Dons anticipate the return to the field for the first time within a week, top ranking stars, Gene Hamaker, ace fullback; Vic Lindskog, blocking back; Hal Lilley, quarter; Bill Ross, guard; Bill Joseph, Bob Schildmeyer, and Vic Linker, ends.

POWERFUL LINE

The Bengal lancers, noted for their powerful line bolstered by several outstanding backs, are expected to prove especially difficult to stop on running plays between the tackles. Scoring threats will fall upon the shoulders of diminutive S. L. Wasmuth, 145 pound Riverside quarterback.

"We consider Riverside equally as tough as Chaffey and expect to meet some real competition tonight," Coach Bill Cook said. Bengals have duplicated every Don win in league games this season, many times defeating opponents by a greater margin than Santa (Continued on page 4)

FULLERTON PLAYBOYS

(An Editorial)

The Fullerton "playboys" are at it again!

With a typical show of bravery, five Hornet "huskies" sat in a car while two others stole up to the flagpole Wednesday morning and hauled down the Don victory flag. The theft occurred in broad daylight during a lull in campus activity.

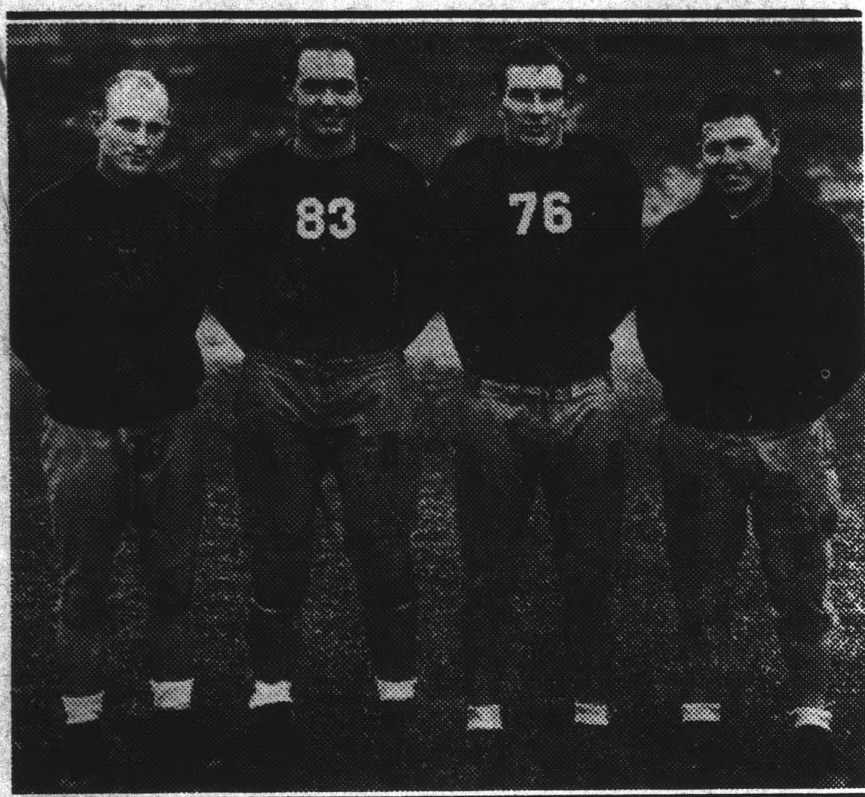

It was this type of act and not the Yellowjacket sticker on the car that identified the invaders.

For lo these many years several cliques of Hornets have been full of "the-old-rah-rah" fight spirit. History speaks for itself.

It is ironic that this group can boast of one of the finest college plants in the Southland but that they would

STARTED DON VICTORY PARADE

Scarlet And Black Opens 134th Game In Facing Bengals Here

By ART HOBSON

Tonight when the defenders of the Scarlet and Black open against Riverside at the Santa Ana bowl, they will carry the Don banner into its 134th game. Since the beginning of jaysee football here in 1916, the gridders from Donville vanquished 74 foes, have met defeat 39 times, and have ended 20 other contests in toss-ups.

CHAMPS IN 1921

In due respect to the past, which saw only one Southern California championship in 1921 when a few stalwarts got together without a coach and with $275 worth of equipment to bring Santa Ana its first jaysee title, the majority of victories have come under Headcoach Bill Cook's mentorship.

Since his start in 1927 when he came to the Dons from the University of Southern California after coaching its freshmen team for one year, Coach Cook has produced four undisputed Southland championship elevens.

WIN RECORD

Two years after his arrival, his charges nabbed the Southern California jaysee crown. They repeated this achievement as well in 1933, 1935, and 1936. In 1937 they tied with San Bernardino after two memorable deadlocks, 7-7, and 6-6.

During the course of their victory marches, the Cookmen hung up what is possibly a national junior college record when they played 22 consecutive games without defeat. This string of triumphs started at the beginning of the 1936 season after an opening defeat at the hands of Pasadena jaysee, and continued until the first encounter with the Bulldogs in the Rose bowl in 1938.

Reserves Important Against Bengals Tonight

Interest Grows As Grid Leaders Meet

Games tonight in the Eastern conference battle royal draw the spotlight of attention to the local Municipal bowl for the contest between Riverside jaysee and the Dons, and to the Fullerton gridiron where the Hornets play host to Chaffey's Panthers.

Results tonight will narrow the three way tie for first place in the league standings shared today by Chaffey, Riverside and the Cookmen.

Dons Smash Indians In 33-0 Massacre

"The Big Parade" was re-enacted last Friday at San Bernardino when the Dons staged the first track meet of the new season by a margin of 33-0.

Behind blockers who blasted the way clear, quarterback Don Borden, co-captain Rollo Beck, quarterback Larry Monroy, and fullback Sam Henderson weaved their way over the last line so often it grew monotonous.

How they scalped the Braves:

1. Monroy went in first 10 minutes on an end run.
2. Beck scored three plays after a Brave punt landed out on their 18.
3. Henderson tallied through line after Dons ripped the Indian line to pieces.
4. Borden scored standing up on spectacular 44-yard run aided by excellent blocking.
5. Borden again on a drive from the 9 yard line.

Women's Football 'Ridiculous,' Says Girl's Athletic Coach

By BETTY FRYE

Miss Zena Leck, women's athletic director, may be definitely quoted that she will not coach a first jaysee women's football team to victory here this fall—or any other time.

"It's perfectly ridiculous," she stated when interviewed on the possibility of the new sport invading junior college. "Any girl who goes out for that sort of thing is lacking in something, I don't know what."

MAN'S GAME

The whole scheme is nothing but publicity in the eyes of the instructor, who added that she does not believe the game is being played seriously in any schools or colleges.

Meanwhile the invasion of women into the sport originally intended for the brawny sex continues in non-scholastic organizations. The establishment of the "Powderpuff league," made up principally from girl softball players of Los Angeles, has been the foundation of the game in Southern California this fall.

FOOTBALL SHORTS

Alleged to have been originated by Jack Spaulding, founder of the annual East-West football classic in San Francisco, the game is dedicated by him "to the Women of America to develop a healthful and safe sport which will promote the physical well-being, alertness and sportsmanship that the women of this country possess."

Of greatest interest to watchers of the game are the uniforms worn by the players. Officially the girls wear leather or canvas shoes, without heels, and football shorts.

SIX WINGS

Positions in the backfield are similar to the masculine game; but the line dispenses with tackles, guards, and ends, having instead a center and six wings.

Even the scoring has been changed by the women's rules committee, with a touchdown counting only five points. The offensive team can kick goal for one point whenever they feel like it in addition to the three points netted by a field goal.

MEN BARRED

However the committee admits that the women can't take it as well as the men, since the two teams are allowed to decide the length of time in each quarter, ranging from five to ten minutes.

To complete this method of "taking the jobs away from the men," the rules make it illegal for any man to officiate in any capacity in connection with a game of women's football. He can't coach a women's team; in fact, during a game, he can't even sit on the bench.

NO FOOTBALL

MISS ZENA LECK, women's athletic director, who today vociferously expressed her disapproval of football for members of the fair sex. Donas with a yen for the manly sport will have to content themselves with being spectators of campus gridders.

Don Substitutes Gain Prestige

Don Headman Bill Cook said today that at least eight members of the reserve football squad have shown such marked improvement in recent competition that he will probably use them frequently in tonight's game against Riverside.

The players mentioned by Coach Cook today were Don Borden and George Henry, quarterbacks; Anthony Kluewer, fullback; Don Hamaker, end; Allan Goff and Lyndle Gheen, tackles; Bill Collins and George Higashi, halfbacks.

These players have been on the third and fourth squads most of the season, the coach said, but have now moved up to the point where they will see considerable action tonight and in future games.

Cook praised the work of Borden and Kluewer against San Bernardino last Friday night.

Don Of The Year To Be Selected

Announcement that a Don of the Year will be selected from the list of Don of the Week winners at the end of the season, was made today by Carl M. Stein, Vandermast store manager following selection of Larry Monroy as Don of the Week for the San Bernardino game.

Borden Second High Scorer In League

Don Borden, shifty Scarleteer reserve quarterback, today shares second place tie in the Eastern conference scoring race following two touchdown jaunts against the hapless San Bernardino Indians last week.

A step behind Borden is Co-captain Rollo Beck, Don halfback, who is scheduled to start against Riverside tonight.

The leading point-getters today:
Wasmuth (Riverside).....18
Borden (Santa Ana).....12
Luginbill (Chaffey).....12
Beck (Santa Ana).....7

Quiz Game Enters Third Week Today

New Record Made Here Last Week

El Don's gridiron guessing game enters the third round today following selection of Dick Castello as winner of last week's contest with the highest percentage of correct predictions received in the competition this fall. Castello correctly marked 15 out of a possible 19 grid victors to claim the $1 trade award at The Don.

Of special note to contestants today is the removal of the contest ballot deposit box to The Don instead of its usual location in College hall. Guesses are due in the new depository at the campus cafe this afternoon by 3 o'clock. Other entrance requirements remain the same.

rather scrap than study. Just playboys!

However, no worry is lost because the flag will be returned. And the Don gridders promise to make up for the time it was lost on Turkey day. A touchdown for each flag thief—seven in all—we hope!

The wheels of justice are turning now as Chaffey will likely tread on the hapless Hornets tonight and it will be the good luck of Davy Don to administer the finishing touches Nov. 23.

On that day of reckoning "playboy" Yellowjacket will learn two lessons:

- (2) "Crime" still does not pay!

Stewart Appointed Physics Teacher

Wilbur Stewart, former student here, was this week appointed as part-time physics instructor for the college by the local board of education.

Mr. Stewart, a graduate of Cal Tech, received his masters degree from the University of Rochester. In addition to conducting physics courses, he will assist in industrial mathematics classes. He has been teaching in Oregon for the past four years.

Fred Ladd Speaker In Azusa Contest

Fred Ladd, local student, represented Santa Ana jaysee in the first Eastern conference speech contest of the year when he attended the meeting of delegates at Citrus Junior college Wednesday evening. Ladd spoke on "What Will Youth Do With Its Oldsters?"

No awards were made as the initial league contest of the year is just a practice affair.

Ladd was accompanied to the contest by Linden Criddle, Quentin Stokes, and Instructors Ernest Crozier Phillips and John H. McCoy.

The Scarleteer backfield will probably open with veteran Larry Monroy at quarterback; Jess Graham, blocker; Co-captain Rollo Beck, wingback; and Sam Henderson, fullback.

Coach Jess Mortensen is expected to bring a Riverside grid battalion 34 strong to the Municipal bowl turf tonight.

LARRY MONROY THE DON OF THE WEEK

Congratulations, Larry, on being chosen the "Don of the Week" due to your fine work in the San Bernardino game! The spectators really went to town in voting for you!

NOTICE STUDENTS:

Hundreds of votes come in from townspeople, but very few from the student body! How come?

Remember, you can vote on any slip of paper . . . or just write the name of your selection for "Don of the Week" on the program, Okay?
